Effective 08/16/06, all exempt Academic employees who are not eligible for overtime should be reporting absences in half- and full-day increments only (except when leave is taken under the Family and Medical Leave Act). Absences in increments less than half- or full-days should not be charged against vacation or sick leave balances. Part-time employees report absences as appropriate based on their appointment. Part-time employees report either half- or full-day equivalent to the value of their 'normal' day.
